Triton College's Adult Education Program Hiring ESL Instructors

Those Interested Should Visit Triton's Website

RIVER GROVE, Ill. – Triton College's Adult Education Program is currently hiring English as a Second Language (ESL) adjunct instructors. The Adult Education Department is hoping to recruit individuals passionate about teaching and helping non-native speakers.

Available positions include part-time (adjunct) instructors to teach morning and evening classes to beginning, intermediate and advanced non-English-speaking adult students. Instructors will receive $48.42 an hour.

Those interested must have a bachelor's degree. Some teaching experience is preferred but not required, e.g., kindergarten through 12th grade, foreign language or bilingual education, or ESL endorsement. Prior adult education experience is also preferred.

Jacqueline Lynch, Triton's dean of Adult Education, said instructors will be provided access to a fully built-out, standards-aligned, ESL curriculum. Faculty do not need to be able to speak the native language of the students.

“Due to the influx of students coming from both the Ukraine and Latin American countries, there's been a greater demand for ESL instructors,” said Dr. Susan Campos, vice president of Academic Affairs. “Teaching can be very rewarding.”

Those interested in applying should go to jobopenings.triton.edu and search for “adjunct faculty” to get more detailed job descriptions and further information.

Classes run in the mornings and evenings, but currently the greatest demand by far is for evening classes.

Classes are taught in the HyFlex format, with the instructor in person, on campus, and students having the choice each day to join in person or remotely with the help of videoconferencing and an auto-tracking camera.

The Adult Education Department is also recruiting GED Language Arts, GED Math, GED Science and GED Social Studies teachers. The times and formats for those classes are comparable to ESL.
