Triton College Alumni Association Held 9th Annual Glow Golf Outing
Money Raised Benefits Alumni Legacy Scholarship Fund

Triton alumna Baylee Norris excitedly jumped in the air at the ninth annual Glow Golf Outing.

RIVER GROVE, Ill. – Triton College's Alumni Association held their ninth annual Glow Golf Outing on Friday, Aug. 18, at Indian Boundary Golf Course in Chicago. The event brought in over 110 people and raised more than $7,000 for the Triton Alumni Association.

The Glow Golf Outing is the biggest fundraiser of the year for the association, according to Andy Hock, Triton College Alumni Association Council president, and Tina Lilly, Triton's Alumni Relations director. The money raised will benefit the Alumni Legacy Scholarship Fund.

The evening kicked off with a Happy Hour for non-golfers. It also included a nine-hole golf experience with glow-in-the-dark golf balls, food provided by Top Butcher, cocktails from Maria's Mexican Restaurant, a raffle and a putting contest. The beer cart was sponsored by Aberdeen Group.

Complimentary massages from Touch Companies Wellness Center & Day Spa were available to attendees.

"We always have a great turnout for this event," said Hock. "There's great camaraderie amongst attendees to raise money for a good cause."

The Triton College Alumni Association gives out four $500 Alumni Legacy Scholarships a year to help offset financial tuition costs to students. The association is dedicated to building and encouraging lifelong connections between the alumni and Triton College. The goal is to connect with alumni and engage them in the future success of Triton College.
