News and Feature Suggestions for the Journal

Please let us know about any interesting events, people, or other newsworthy story ideas for The 5th Avenue Journal. If you know of anything, or anyone that warrants coverage, please fill out this brief outline and return in to The Journal Office (room T-157) or drop it in the inter-office campus mail. We are always looking for new story ideas, and we need your help to keep out paper interesting, accurate and informative. We also want to hear about any special events or campus activities that your club or organization may be involved in. It helps us to get the information at two weeks prior to the event, so please give us a call at extension 3318 or 3319 to get our publication schedule. Thank you for your cooperation!

Who?
____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________

What?
____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________

Where?
____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________

When?
____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________

Why?
____________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________

Your name, extension, department:__________________________________