Triton College completes swimming pool renovation

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE MAY 21, 2014

River Grove, Ill. – Triton College has completed the renovation of its swimming pool, just in time for summer courses!

Beginning in May, Triton College will reconvene its aquatic classes in its newly renovated swimming pool that is compliant with safety and ADA regulations. New features of the pool include a new liner, mechanical systems, piping, a state-of-the-art audio system, sound attenuation panels and an eye-catching design sporting the Triton College logo. Also, a new, more sustainable filtration system was installed to filter safe and clean water into the pool, while still saving on water and energy.

“The pool renovations were made to enhance the facility to suit students’ needs,” said Dr. Doug Olson, vice president of Academic and Student Affairs. “With summer approaching, we hope that with the completion of our newly renovated swimming pool that we are able to provide our students with a little cool relief with our aquatic classes.”

Triton College’s School of Continuing Education offers aquatic classes for ages as young as 5 to learn how to swim, as well as water exercising classes for adults. Some Continuing Education classes begin May 31; credit courses in the pool begin June 9!
